

Art Exhibition Title: "CONNECTING US 2 TRASH"

Show Opening Date: March 18, 2025 - May 1, 2025

Group Panel: "Consumerism and Its Relationship to Trash"

Panel Discussion Date: March 25, 2025

Time: 6 PM - 7 PM

Location: New Orleans Healing Center

Join us for the official opening of our impactful group art exhibition, "CONNECTING US 2 TRASH", which discusses consumerism and the residue of trash," running from March 18 to May 1, 2025. This exhibition aims to illuminate the connections between human consumerism and the resulting waste, demonstrating how what we often dismiss as trash can be properly valued as a resource. Through the creative perspectives of various artists, the show illustrates the transformative potential of discarded materials when seen through a lens of sustainability and innovation.

On March 25, participate in our panel discussion with some of the featured artists in the show, and curator Madera Rogers-Henry, with:

- (New Orleans Artists) Adam Farrington,
- Jessica Strahan,
- Josh Hailey,
- (Kolaj Institute) Ric Kasini Kadour,
- (Le Mysterium Art Collective) Rodney Griffin, Rosemarie O'Connell, and Shakiem "Paradoxx" Rodes
- (Milliner's Association of Nigeria) Selected hats,
- (Atlanta) , Agape Jasmine Pennywell.

Together, they will engage in a vital conversation about environmental responsibility and the reimagining of waste within our culture.

Join us at the New Orleans Healing Center to inspire your thoughts and actions as we confront and reflect on these critical themes through creativity and collaboration.

This is a free event for the general public, attendees are asked to bring their clean recyclables, along with sampling light beverages and desserts.

