CMMP Intern:

Congratulations Interns for CMMP! On behalf of our Community Partner, CMMP and Literacy Project International aka Whose Magazine? A Youth Publication and our programs as The Recycle Challenge Parade & Festival, The Recycle & Crafting Station, and the Whose Magazine programming, I would like to extend a warm welcome to you as an intern. We are excited to have you join our team and contribute your skills and strengths to our organization's mission.

We understand that your internship experience is a vital step towards building your career and gaining valuable practical knowledge. Therefore, we need to match you with an internship opportunity that aligns with your strengths and skillset. We believe that this will provide you with a fulfilling and rewarding experience during your time with us. Review the various opportunities available for interns and volunteers.

During your internship, you will be provided with training and guidance to ensure your success. Our team will be available to answer any questions you may have and offer support throughout your journey.

For volunteering do the following:

- a) Visit www.the-recycle-challenge.com website
- b) Select OPPORTUNITIES heading
- c) Download Photo & Press Release
- d) When ready, select the Green Volunteer Application box - Enter PROMO CODE: CMMP #A

Please have the following ready to upload onto the application

- a) Resume, Photo & Print Release

If working around children, you will need:

- a) Drug-Free Policy & Background Check

This will assist us in assigning you an internship opportunity that is tailored to your specific background and goals. If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. We are looking forward to working with you and being a part of your professional development.

Once again, welcome to Literacy Project International aka Whose Magazine? A Youth Publication. Together, we can make a difference!

Warm regards,
